Chapter 1 by Glowy-Druglord

It was dark and quite miserable the day the Republic sent the Clones under Skywalker's command down to Umbara. Somehow I knew this would end terribly, I just had that feeling. I hadn't been a Sargent for long, I still wasn't too comfortable with this lower rank. Of course, it didn't surprise me that the Clones lowered my rank because I was a female. I used to be a Commando, back when I used to have a squad to call my own. I lost them to Trandosians, almost got myself killed. Just like I did on Umbara when we discovered Krell's mutiny against our own men.

But now that the Republic fell, my squad and I were forced to retire from the Clone business. We were forced to sit around and watch our talents waste away. My squad seemed fine with avoiding the Empire, but I had plenty bones to pick with them. I gained the trust of so many Clones, I wasn't going to loose that so soon.
